

SEAMEO Regional Centre for History and Tradition
MYANMAR HISTORY FROM MYANMAR PERSPECTIVES

20 – 26 November 2018

There have been different perspectives and interpretations on Myanmar history since it was viewed by different people. The perspectives and interpretations of Myanmar scholars, however, are not too well known because Myanmar scholars publish mostly in Myanmar language. As the Regional Centre for History and Tradition, SEAMEO CHAT has a role in putting together a picture of Myanmar's past, its developments, and its mosaic of cultures and traditions.

Since 2002, SEAMEO CHAT has carried out the Annual Programme: Myanmar History from Myanmar Perspectives which has been given good remarks on the programme by the participants. For this year 2018, the programme has been slightly changed in order to give chances for the participants to have wider knowledge on Myanmar's past and present.

Myanmar History from Myanmar Perspectives programme will be a perfect package which comprises the different perspectives of the present community of scholars in the country.
