MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) as it leads the observance of Museums and Galleries Month (MGM) 2020.

I thank the NCCA for its efforts to promote our country's rich cultural heritage and the Filipino's exemplary and world-class talents through programs like this. May it continue to promote our national identity and pride amidst our rapidly changing environment.

In today's age of technology and modernization, it is important that we encourage our people, especially the younger generation, to know and appreciate the important role of museums and galleries in our lives and in our country's narrative.

May this month-long celebration unite all museums and galleries in the Philippines towards raising greater awareness on the importance of these cultural and learning environments. May it also inspire the Filipino youth to discover their unique interests and realize their full potential.

I wish you a successful MGM 2020.
