MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) and the entire Filipino nation as we observe the 2021 Museums and Galleries Month.

I am one with the NCCA in highlighting the importance of our museums and galleries in preserving our rich cultural heritage and identity, even amidst a rapidly-evolving society.

As you spearhead this event, I encourage the NCCA to promote greater appreciation of our collection of artworks in various media as well as of our historical and religious artifacts. May you also continue to create diverse opportunities that will celebrate our unique way of life and promote excellence and creativity among Filipino artists.

Together, let us draw inspiration from these national treasures to inspire unity, arouse Filipino consciousness and instill pride in our roots.

I wish everyone a meaningful observance.
